

You are invited to the opening of my solo exhibition

HOTEL KALAHARI

25-29 October 2024

This collection of wire sculptures, inspired by communal nests of Sociable Weavers, reflects my exploration of care, loss, and connection. The exhibition marks the culmination of my final-year BA Honours Fine Arts project at OCA, London.

Date: 25 October 2024 | Time: 18:30

Venue: Langvlei Farm, Station Road, Riebeeck West

(please call 063 604 8752 to open the gate)

The event starts with an opening address, followed by a walkabout, where I'll share insights into my creative process and stories behind my works. Snacks and drinks will be served throughout the evening as we gather to share this experience.

I look forward to welcoming you and sharing this highlight in my artistic journey.

Warm regards, Karen Stander

Please RSVP to me before
